Question 1

Mr Robert Clark, Attorney General of Victoria said the following:

'This bill will deliver on the government's election commitment to legislate to allow criminal bikie and similar organisations to be outlawed where they are used for serious criminal activity and the organisation's continued operation represents a serious threat to public order and safety. The bill will do so while ensuring these decisions are made by the courts, after a robust assessment of the evidence and with affected parties having the opportunity to be heard.'
